

Reform Bahai Fireside Talks

“O people of the world, ye are all the fruit of one tree, and the leaves of one branch.” —Baha'u'llah

“To be a Bahai simply means to love all the world; to love humanity and try to serve it; to work for universal peace and universal brotherhood.” —Abdu'l-Baha

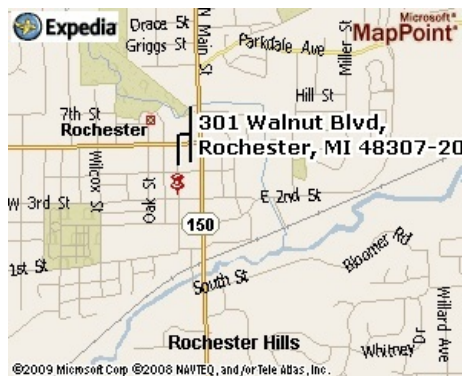

"Fireside Talks," introductory discussion, readings, and prayers.

The Reform Bahai Faith affirms the universal spiritual and moral principles taught in all of the great religious traditions. Learn about the Teachings of Baha'u'llah and share our devotional spirit of love, fellowship, and joy. Readings are from the Bahai Writings, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, Daoism, Confucianism, and other world religions. No ritual or solicitation of funds. Light refreshments. Members of all faiths are welcome to join us in discussion, meditation, and prayer. See our website for more details.

WHEN: January 31, 2010, Sunday morning, 10:30 am to 12:00 noon.

LOCATION: 301 Walnut Boulevard, in downtown Rochester, one block West of Main Street. In the old First Congregational Church, on the corner of 3rd Street and Walnut Boulevard.
